

Hub of agile, adaptive and advanced defence

Estonia's defence industry sets new standards for addressing modern security challenges through advanced innovation, agility, and international co-operation.

Core facts

2/3

of defence industry's output exported, exponential year-on-year growth with growing international demand.

3,21%

of GDP investment commitment to NATO.

#1

in Global Cybersecurity index in the EU, we are home to Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence, a globally leading institution in cybersecurity research and training.

100%

All Estonian defence companies are private, boasting a favourable business environment for international export with low taxes and efficient processes.

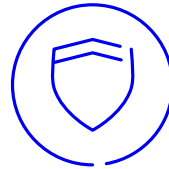

Strengths

Straight to business, benefiting from a straight-forward business environment

Smart workforce, with growth driven by high-level competence

Support from the Ministry of Defence, creating new business opportunities

Strong R&D and inclusion

Estonia is one of Ukraine's key supporters since 2022, providing war aid exceeding over 1.4% of GDP

Backing Ukraine, safeguarding the world

Estonia's defence industry stands alongside Ukraine in its fight against Russian invasion, providing critical tools, technology, and expertise to bolster Ukraine's defence capabilities and safeguard its sovereignty. Estonia has been one of Ukraine's key supporters since 2022, with war aid exceeding 1.4% of its GDP.

One-stop shop for advanced defence

With expertise in manufacturing and innovation, Estonia stands ready to serve diverse defence needs efficiently and effectively. Our compact size makes us flexible and enables us to offer complex services. Estonia's commitment to advanced defence technology is supported by R&D funding backed by the Ministry of Defence.

Trusted partners, reliable defence

A proven track record of high-quality output, our commitment to transparency and collaboration ensure that we deliver on our promises. Internationally, we are leading numerous development initiatives and are actively enhancing new defence measures through the European Defence Fund.

Useful materials:

Presentation with detailed notes

Video

Photos

Success Stories:

Threod Systems

Milrem

DefSecIntel Solutions

